

Activity 4 — Role-Play Observer Checklist

The Walk-In Interruption — Retail Service Counter, Bugis

Focus of this observation	In-person service — acknowledgement, body language and park-and-return
You are observing	Role A — the Service Officer
Setup	Groups of 4. Role A = Service Officer, B = SIM customer, C = Ms Chen, D = observer/phone caller.
Duration	15 minutes

Observer: _____ Performer: _____ Round: 1 / 2

Tick DONE only where you actually saw the behaviour. 'What good looks like' is the standard — anything less is NOT YET.

Cod e	What to observe	What good looks like	Done	Not yet
A1	Acknowledged the walk-in within 5 seconds	Eye contact plus a raised hand or a short verbal hold — before finishing the current task.
K1	Gave a realistic wait time	'About two minutes', not a vague 'in a moment'.
K1	Protected the customer already at the counter	Stated the priority rule openly so the queue could hear it was fair.
K1	Torso stayed oriented to the active customer	Turned only the head to the walk-in; never turned the whole body away.
K1	Handled the phone without abandoning the person present	Let it queue or offered a callback — did not hold a full phone conversation with a customer standing there.
A1	Nobody was asked to repeat themselves	Resumed the SIM registration and opened with Ms Chen's own words ('you mentioned a cracked screen').
K1	Open, non-defensive gestures	Open palm rather than a pointed finger; no arms crossed; no glancing at a phone.
K1	Closed each interaction with next steps	Both customers left knowing what happens now.

Strongest moment — what worked, and why

One thing to change in the next round

The performer's own view (ask them first, before you give feedback)

Check your work: You acknowledged the walk-in within 5 seconds, no customer was asked to repeat themselves, and the observer confirms you never fully turned away from the customer you were actively serving.
